

Corporate & Business Law

In this fast-paced business climate in Western Wake, clients need to have confidence that a knowledgeable attorney is close at hand. At StephensonLaw, we are able to instill that confidence by providing an array of legal services for companies of all sizes. The attorneys at StephensonLaw are adept at incorporating a new business and drafting all the documents breathing life into that entity such as articles of incorporation, partnership agreements and other agreements. Stephenson Law has the expertise to handle complex merger and acquisition matters to the formations of limited liability companies. StephensonLaw counsels our business clients on a variety of business contracts, creating employment agreements and covenants not to compete. Our clients know they can count on solid advice on a wide variety of business needs. While we can handle isolated needs, StephensonLaw strives to create a long-term partnership with our business clients.